PUBLIC MEETING INFORMATION

The Unemployment Compensation Review Commission conducts a public meeting each Tuesday at 12:30pm in any week which does not include a state holiday. The meeting is public, and any member of the public may attend and observe without prior notice. The Agenda is preset, and public participation is available if previously scheduled and placed on the meeting agenda.

The meeting may be rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances or for lack of a quorum. If you are interested in attending the meeting and would like to ensure that the meeting has not been rescheduled, please contact the Commission at (614) 387-3693 and a Customer Service Agent will be happy to assist you.

The public meeting is held at The Department of Job and Family Services Building at 4020 East Fifth Avenue, Columbus Ohio 43219. The meeting room is A-103. All guests will be required to sign in at the Security Desk and present a photo ID to be issued a temporary security badge to enter the facility.
